

Hiram McAdams to Alice Williamson –March 10, 1891 (Page 1 of 4)

Original spelling, punctuation and grammar have been preserved. Extra spaces have been added between sentences to improve readability, because no end of sentence punctuation was used in the original letter.

Note: "inst" was commonly used in 19th century correspondence to indicate "next" in dates. For example, "11 inst" means "the next 11th". "Monday inst" means "next Monday", etc.

Esteemed friend

I am just in receipt of your highly appreciated note which I have read and re-read because that there was part of it that I didnt want to see I wil say that the first part seemed to completely care me a way but alas when I turned the page it was then my hart sank down with sorrow miss Alice while I love you more than can be exp^{re}s^sed I want you to be happy through this life and if I am not the one for you I hope you success and I wil do the best that I can I feel thank ful for the high opinion that you have

of me that was more than I desired I feel that I am the one that is unworthy of you miss Alice I told you perhaps I would come up to church Sunday my feelings will have to change very much from the present time if I go away where but will call some time in the near future please excuse me if I am ~~apologizing~~ ^{to you} for slopping ~~expaining~~ something that I can't well help please excuse shortness of note and write soon I will be glad to hear from you at any time your True Friend until
